Only that day dawns to which we are awake.
There is more day to dawn. The sun is but a morning star.

— Henry David Thoreau

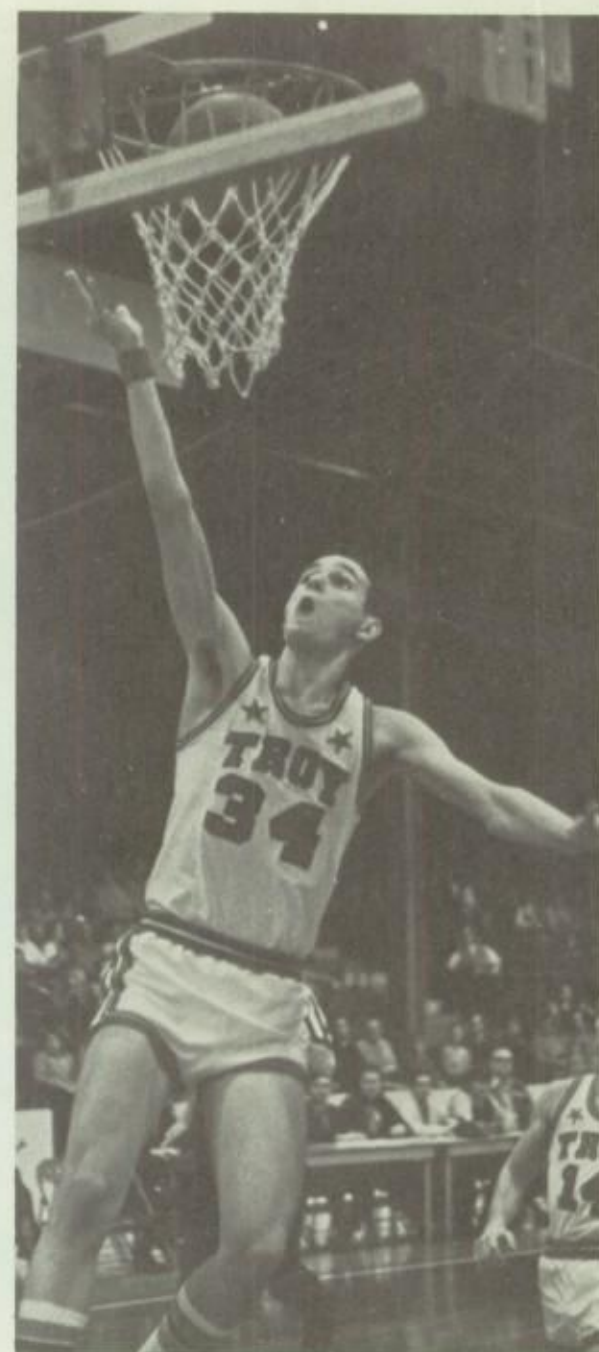

Consider that this day never dawns again.

— Dante Alighieri (1265-1321)

The true harvest of my daily life is somewhat as intangible as the tints of morning or evening. It is a little star dust caught, a segment of the rainbow which I have clutched.

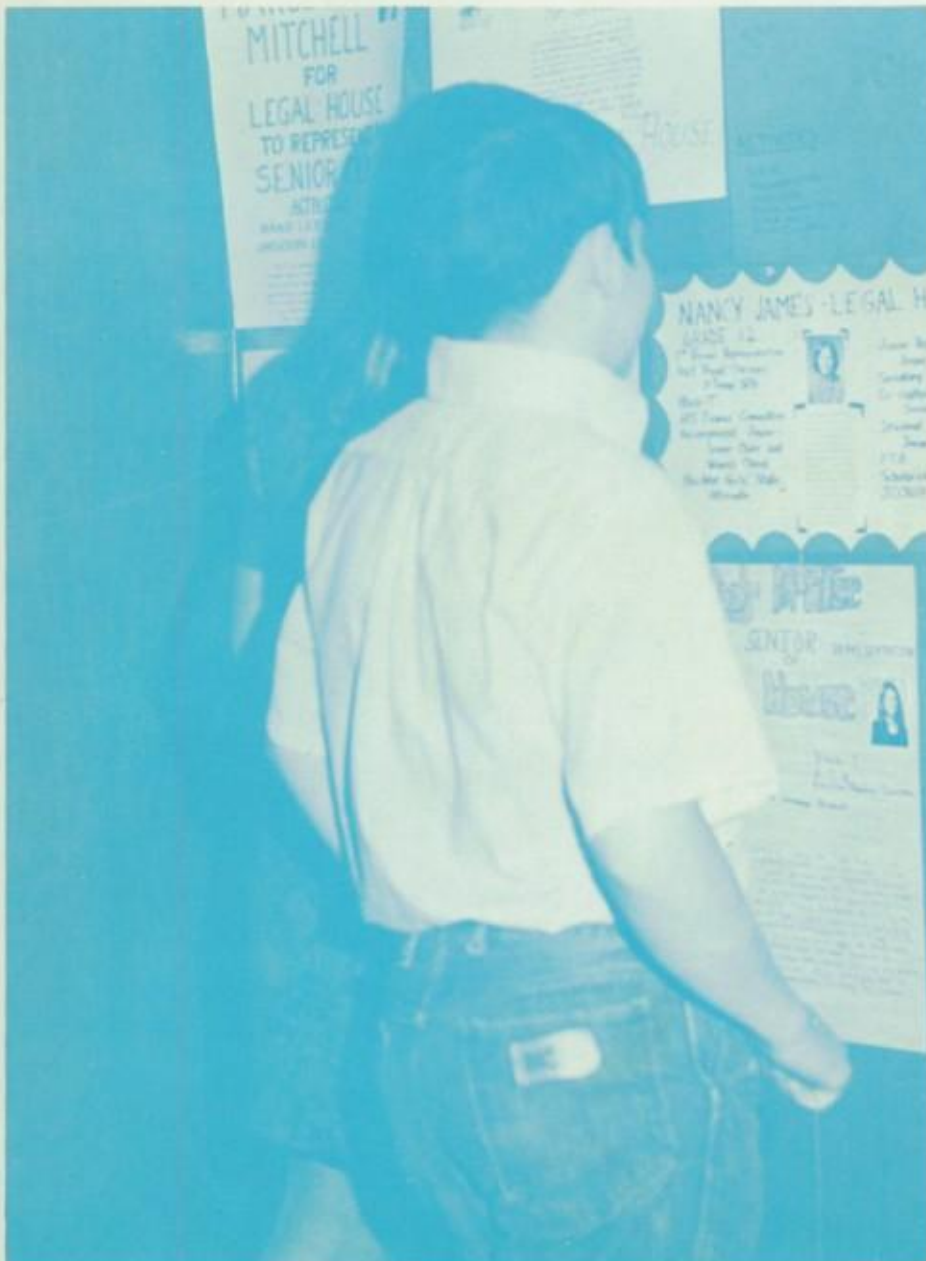

— Henry David Thoreau

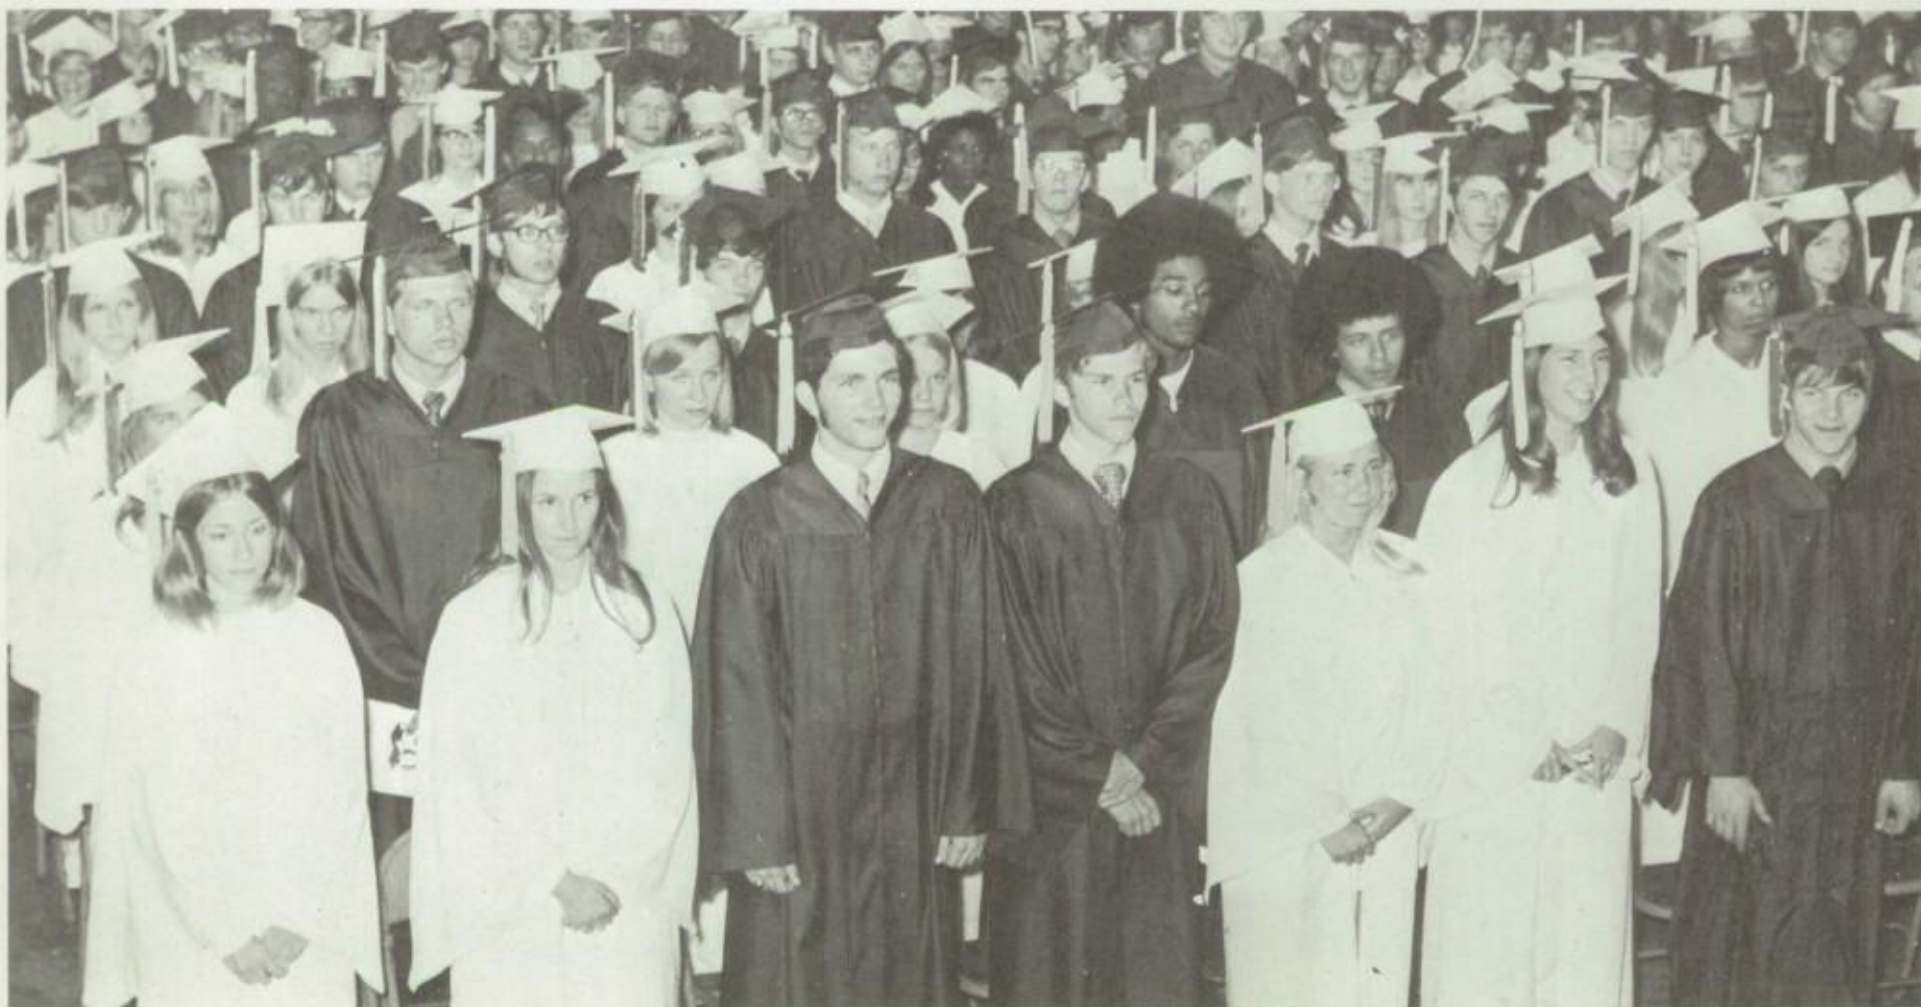

All experience is an arch, to build upon.

— Henry Brooks Adams

The past is but the beginning of a beginning and all that is and has been is but the twilight of the dawn.

— Herbert George Wells

IN MEMORY OF

Sharon Cremeans

May 8, 1955 — May 1, 1971

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

— Matthew 5:4

We're the Class

FACULTY TOAST TO THE CLASS OF 1971

We toast your health; we toast your knowledge
We hope you all don't go to college.

But if you do, we've done our best
To teach respect for all — no jest.

We hope at least you sense these lines
As help to further your designs.

We know too well that love of labor
For most of you has lost some favor.

Nonetheless — you still must find
The type of work that grabs your mind.

But what to love and what to treasure
Is not an easy thing to measure.

You measure with a trusted rule
And have just pride in self and school.

You know yourself; you know your brother;
You know at least we need each other.

What separates and joins us, too,
Is what for you you like to do.

So choose to love, whatever reason,
A scholarship, a 10-0 season.

And if you do, you'll find it true
Without a doubt, we'll drink to you.

Please keep it up, what you've begun,
The class of one nine seven one.

Richard W. Rosen

SENIOR TOAST

Here we are in the fantastic seventies —
Protests, pornography, pollution . . . and prayer;
"Power to the people!" "Give peace a chance!" —
We all can invent chants, but do we all care?

I mean all those catchy words and phrases —
Yes, we've heard them one and all,
With "Stay away from dope!", "Kill the pigs!",
And "Hey you! Up against the wall . . .!"

"Right on!" "We've come a long way, baby!" —
Please . . . let's rid ourselves of new clichés.
Words are wonderful, but our goal must be higher Than speaking with Spiro T. Agnew's ways.

We're about to take our famous "first big step";
They're turning us loose to try it "out there", —
Where it really does matter how you dress, and take a careful look at the length of your hair.

We've studied and prepared ourselves
For whatever may come to be.
But we can't overlook that one important group:
Our frolicsome and fastidious, but faithful faculty!

Our faculty is special and very essential —
Some corpulent, some cranky, some contrary, but all cool!
We've worked hard together . . . and sometimes against,
But the result has been the success of our school.

To you — you unpredictable "harbingers of fate,"
Who have lived through our griefs and some fairly cruel pranks,
We hesitantly, sorrowfully, bid you adieu,
And say nothing more sincerely than just plain "Thanks!"

Freda Hickman

Dear Friends,

This is the tale of our high school life Filled with pleasure, and yet much strife.

So this four-year story is dedicated to you
To remind us all of the fun we knew.

In freshman English, to our despair,
We read Chuck Dickens with tremendous care . . . ?

With great expectations we read Great Expectations.
Miss Havisham's tale was quite a creation.

The one common interest we all dearly cherished Phys. Ed. every day — UGH! How we perished!
Five days a week with Hildred and Gary,
From volleyball to basketball the times were merry.

We're off! To Sunny Spain!
Without Ted Bumiller, assemblies were a pain.
That was Susan's idea not mine,
And she couldn't think of another line.

On New Year's Eve to liven the night,
They jumped in the car, unaware of their plight.
Sandy was driving — breaking the law,
Then slid on ice and broke Kathy's jaw.

Those are the memories that stood out in our minds
Of that first year that we now left behind.
The summer passed quickly as we partied around
And got to know the new friends we had found.

Sophomore girls were allowed to be Members of the Block's So-ci-e-ty.
With imagination, effort, paper, and paint,
We decorated the walls but artists
we ain't!

Phys. Ed. this year really got rolling
With ping-pong, badminton, and yes
— even bowling.
But we mustn't forget the message they sent
That Hoef was a beaut from inside the vent.

Our sophomore year had come and gone.

At last there was evidence of a new dawn.
For two years we had been the scum
of the school,
But now as upperclassmen, it was our turn to rule.
It just wouldn't be right to forget the Kid,
The spark of the class, Our Man
"Sid".
He's Richard by birth, God, what a spaz!
So Sid was the name, given specially by Kaz.

Miss Floyd with her literature book, did try her best
To get us through each and every test.
From novels to term papers we went almost insane,
But Wayne and Jim just played their own game.

Patti, Kathy, Charlene, and Robin
Led all the cheers laughin' or sobbin'
For the next two years they led the way
To every Trojan victory day.

This was the year people realized
That fighting and killing aren't at all wise.
There were movies and speakers to teach us the facts
And the Vietnam Moratorium did just that.

For class president we elected Mark
Who gave our prom its certain spark.
From paper mache to handmade leis, We'll always treasure our "On Broadway."

And now we reach our final days
Where reading and writing all become play.
With one last year for us to complete
We decided to make it impossible to beat.

Football began and to our delight.
Our team played with all their Trojan might.
We followed them to every game,
Proving to our opponents the Trojan fame.

Without any trouble we fought each foe
And ended our season, ten and O.
The guys all got scholarships (as well they should),
Because they smeared each team better than anyone could.

There was no need to question when Homecoming came.
We all wanted Debbie for our queen to reign.
To add both beauty and moral support
We elected Faye, Susan, Tammy, Patti, Diane, and Char as her court.
From January through March we worked on "Dolly,"
With Julie and Mike, it was far from melancholy.
With Dooley and "Mr. Skip" giving their best,
It was a sellout each night, the greatest success.

We waited anxiously to see the result Of the juniors' "Wizard of Oz." It came off without fault.
"The Wonderlust" returned to play and sing
And we chose Debbie and Mark as our queen and king.

They say these will be our most treasured years
With memories of all our hopes and fears.
Here we have found our closest friends,
And yet we will lose them around the next bend.

These were the hard times, but we came out all right.
And looking ahead we can see the light.
Together we have hated, loved,
laughed, and cried,
And now it is time to say our goodbye.

It is here in Troy we all have been learning
Just exactly which way the world is turning.
Black or white, long-haired or straight,
We learned these weren't important before it was too late.

So with insight and courage we now must go
And show this world all that we know.
Go forth into the world with kindness and peace,
And show that brotherhood and love shall never cease.

Joy and love,

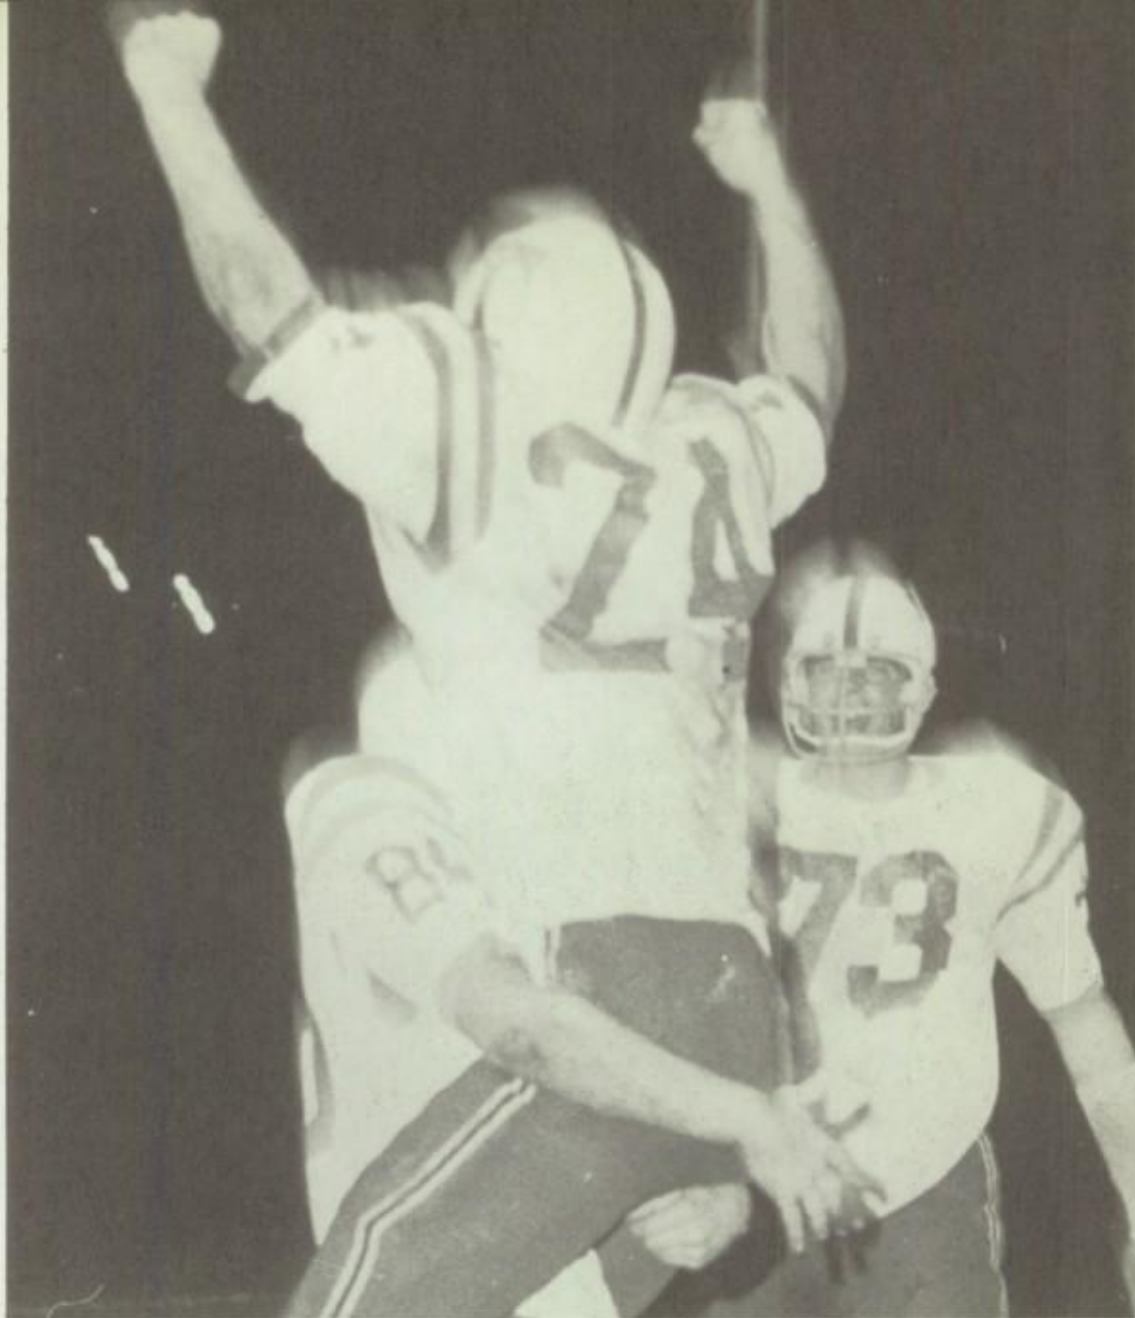

Susan and Julie

SPORTS

FOOTBALL '70

Head Coach Jim Conard led the 1970 Troy Trojans to their first perfect 10-0 season since 1946. The Trojan squad bounced back from a ninth place finish last year to capture the Western Ohio League Championship. Troy was ranked ninth in Ohio (UPI poll). Hard work and dedication paid off for the Troy High Varsity Football team — the Pride of Troy.

WRESTLING '70-'71

The grapplers of Troy High finished the season with a 4-3 dual meet record. Behind strong wrestling the Troy team took first place in the Milton-Union Invitational and captured second place in both the Troy and Northmont Invitationals. Troy wrestlers combined for a third in W.O.L. action. The young reserve team finished the season with a perfect 9-0 record.

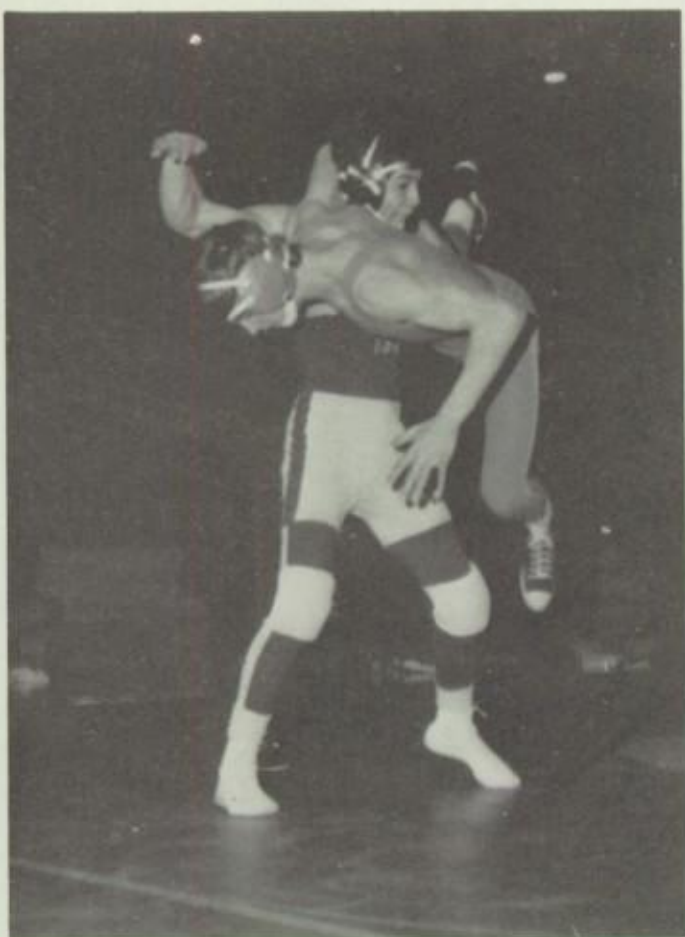

Individually the Trojans fared well. In the Troy Invitational, Campbell and McDade took firsts while teammates Eastman and Pierce finished second. The Northmont Invitational saw the trio of McDade, Goodin, and Starkey finish first with Campbell, Schroeder, and Shoup taking second place honors. Juniors Campbell and Goodin captured first in the Milton Invitational action, while fellow wrestlers McDade, Wray, and Starkey took seconds. McDade and Shoup wrestled their way to W.O.L. Championships. In team honors, Pierce and Bazzel led the team with 26 takedowns while heavy-weight Starkey set a Troy High record of 14 pins in one season.

In W.O.L. competition, Mike Christie placed seventh in floor exercise; Dave Schelkun, sixth in long horse vaulting; Steve Gingrich, ninth on side horse; and Stacy Smallenbarger, eighth on parallel bars; tenth on the rings, and ninth on the high bar, (fifth all around). In regional action, Steve Gingrich finished sixth on the side horse and Stacy Smallenbarger earned a fourth on parallel bars and sixth all around. Later Stacy captured sixth on the parallel bars in the state. These feats earned Smallenbarger "Most Outstanding Gymnast." Steve Gingrich was awarded "Most Improved Gymnast" and Pat Frey, "Most Outstanding Freshman Gymnast." Next year promises to be the best year ever.

Coach Herb Hartman and his track squad are rewriting the Troy High record books. In three years under Coach Hartman, all but two records have been broken. This season was no exception with eight records captured.

In W.O.L. action Troy sported individual champs Tom Wise, Elmo Boyd, Eric Nelson, and Bob Campbell, plus the mile relay team. In sectional competition the mile relay, Wise, and Boyd repeated their victories with Mike Kilpatrick also grabbing a first. Carrying the Troy High banner into the state finals, Tom Wise and the mile relay team took fifths while teammate Elmo Boyd finished eighth. With young talent and another season's experience, Troy will return next year in quest of VICTORY!

THE MANY

FACES OF T.H.S.

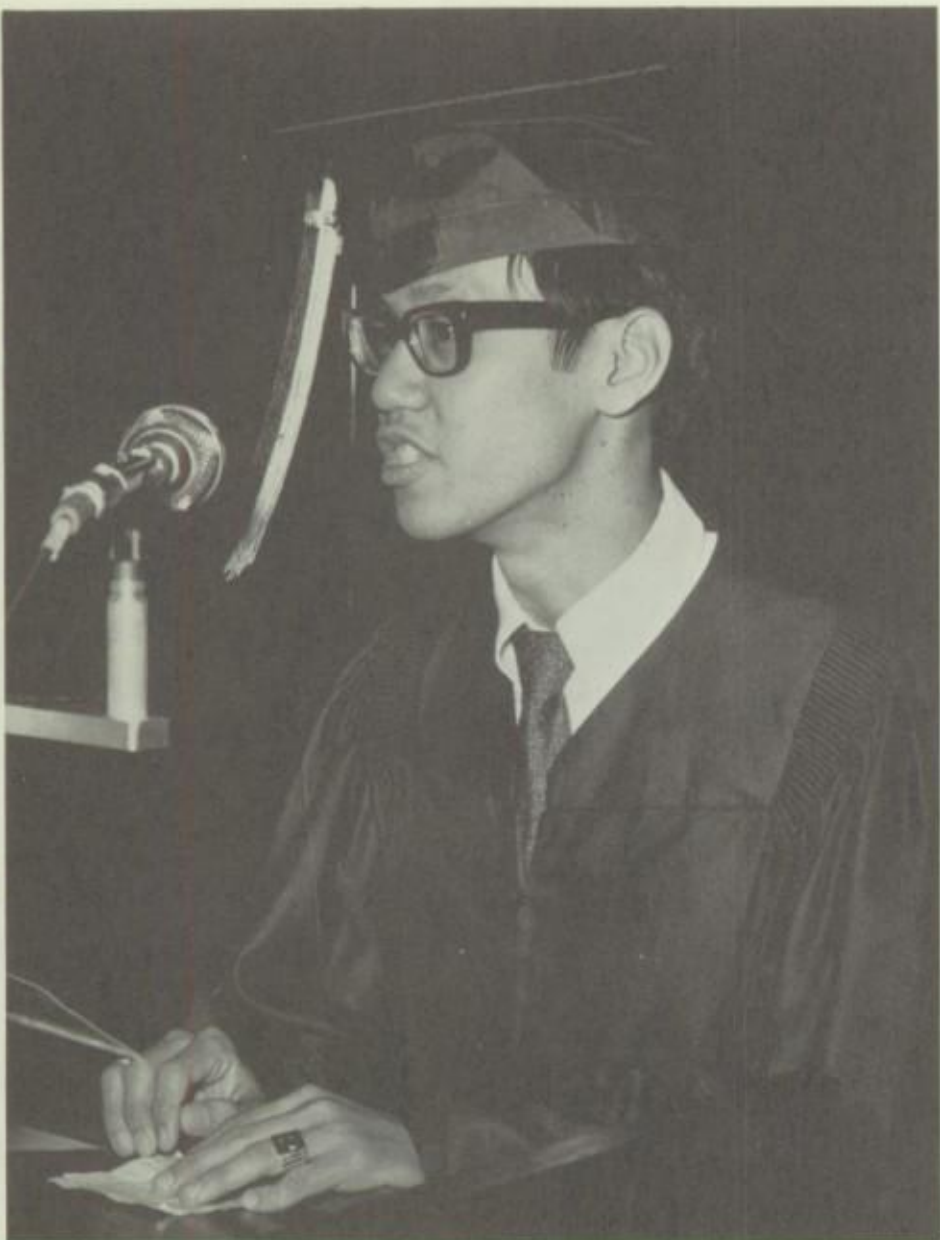

IRENE

Irene Rosenberg is from Cordoba, Argentina. She comes on the Youth for Understanding program. This program was started in 1957 by Father Ernst who went to Germany and brought back twenty German students to live with American families. The purpose of YFU is to promote international relations in the home and family living.

Irene likes our school system because there is no dress code. She was surprised to find that so many people have cars. Irene found that the people here are very friendly.

CHAI

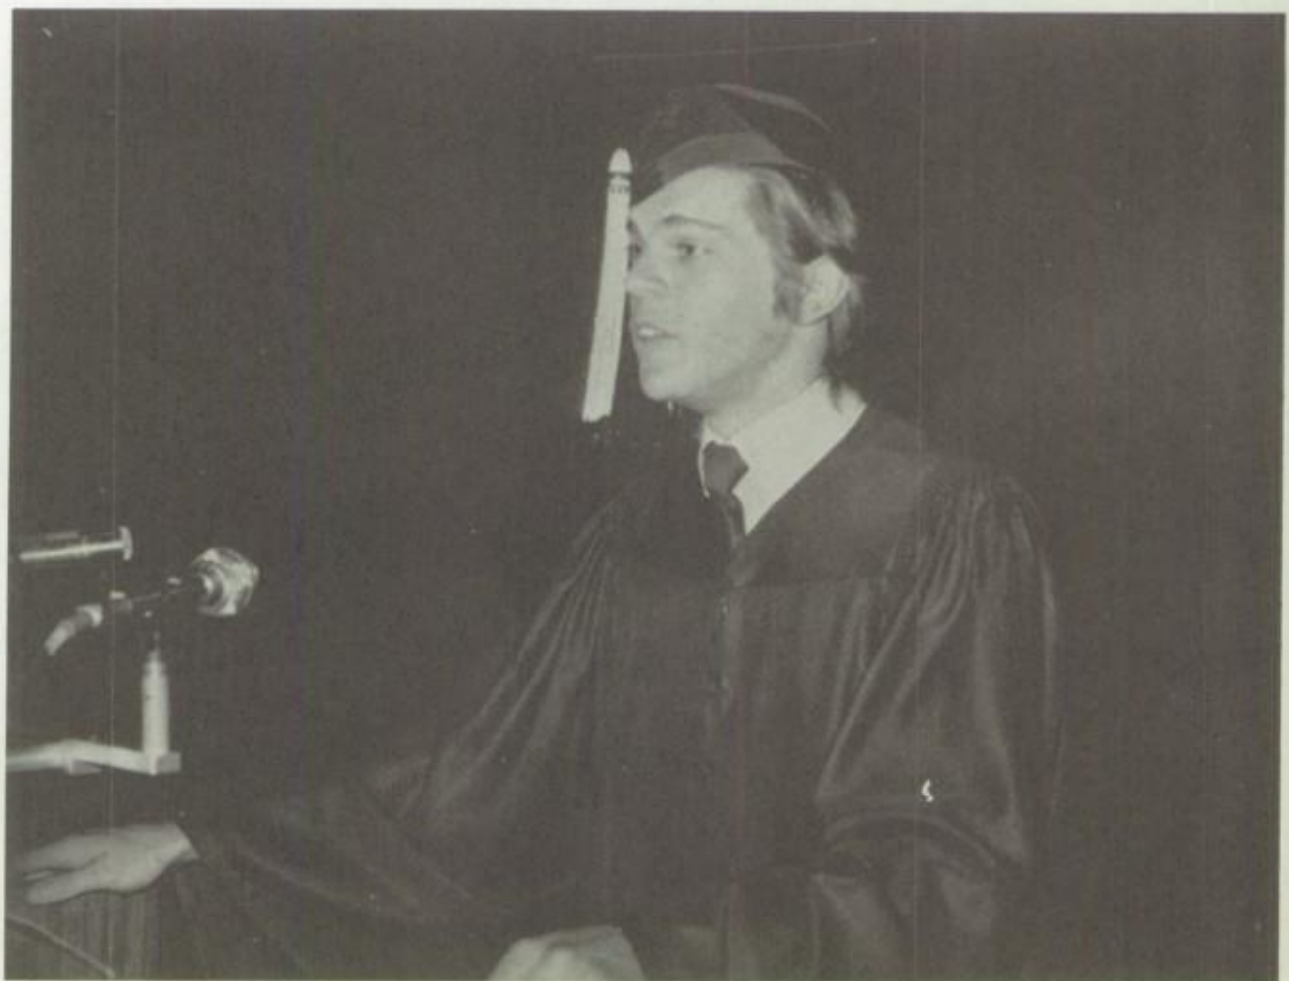

Chai Srilaveevilas comes from Bangkok, Thailand on the American Field Service Program. The American Field Service started in World War I with an ambulance service by the same name. After the war the service decided to start scholarships to finance exchange students in an effort to promote world peace.

Chai likes our school system because a student has a choice of subjects and is not required to wear a uniform. Chai enjoyed the many extracurricular activities such as football and basketball games, the plays and the musical. He was especially impressed with our Christmas celebration. Chai found that his friends were always willing to help him when he needed it.

ANDERS

Anders Svensson comes from Nassjo, Sweden on the International Christian Youth Exchange program. Anders likes our school system because a student can choose what subjects he wants to take. He especially enjoyed art class and working at the Troy Child Development Center. Anders will remember the Junior-Senior Prom because he had never seen or been to anything like it. He was impressed by the willingness of the high school students to work in clubs (Dramatics) that have nothing to do with school work. Anders found that people are friendly, open-minded and interested in a person from another country. He also wishes to thank the teachers and student body for their co-operation because he never met anyone who was not willing to help or understand him.
